

MISSION PARTNER PROFILE

Rev. Jim Paul

India

Rev. Jim Paul has recently taken up his post as a hospital chaplain at the Christian Medical Centre, Vellore, India. He was ordained in the Church of South India and comes to Vellore from the Diocese of South Kerala. His wife Sujata is a university lecturer. She is currently looking after their son, Dan who is 3 years old and is hoping to return to teaching.

Rev. Jim is seeking to share Jesus through his pastoral ministry of caring for the sick and their families. He is actively leading daily devotions at the hospital which are attended by staff as well as patients. He is also part of a chaplaincy team providing pastoral support for all those connected with the hospital. He is often the first point of contact for patients of any religion who want prayer and require pastoral support.

The Christian Medical Centre at Vellore, Tamil Nadu combines a hospital with a training college and research institute. The hospital was founded by missionaries and has become one of the top ranked medical colleges in India, pioneering a number of surgical procedures and treatments.
