

MISSION PARTNER PROFILE

RP has been actively involved in church work and other Kingdom business since her high school days. She is the head of an Indonesian non-governmental organisation that was set up in 2010 to mobilise and empower the Christian community to help transform the lives of the marginalised in Indonesia.

Her field experience included stints with the Pentecost Methodist Church-Peranakan and HKBP Church, both in Singapore; supervising missionaries for cross-culture ministry BPLB (OMF Indonesia), teaching mission in STT Cipanas, and teaching evangelism, urban mission in STT Amanat Agung, Jakarta.

On the work front, she served with the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship (Perkantas Jakarta) from 1988 to 2000, and with OMF Indonesia from 2000 to 2011.

After her return from Redcliffe College in Gloucester, the United Kingdom, she and a few friends started building a care ministry for children and women, which led to her joining the government-certified Indonesian NGO in 2011.

Under her direction, the NGO has built relations and partnership with churches, theological schools, the government, entrepreneurs, and other NGOs by having regular meetings, seminars, panel discussions and workshops based on the core values of Compassion, Servanthood, Accountability, Excellence and Collaboration.
