

MISSION PARTNER PROFILE

Rabbi & Chitra
India

Rabbi and Chitra Jayakaran are professional social workers with over 15 years' experience working with communities across India on issues of justice, sustainable development, women empowerment, child rights, etc. As communities in India and Asia are being torn by conflict and violence they felt the Lord calling them into peace and reconciliation ministry.

Based in Bangalore, India, their ministry is focused on bringing restoration and reconciliation to individuals, families, groups, organisations and communities. They are involved in teaching and training in colleges, seminaries and organisations on conflict transformation and peace building. They work with women prisoners and their families to bring restoration and holistic rehabilitation to them.

Rabbi teaches peace and conflict studies in Christ University, Bangalore. They are also journeying with young people facing challenging life situations, helping them in the process of inner healing and wholeness. Chitra also writes and edits stories and articles on relationships, family, justice and peace. She is part of the editorial board of a family magazine.

Peacemaking begins with the body of Christ resolving conflicts biblically and living in unity so that they can be peacemakers to the world. Hence Rabbi and Chitra are involved in strengthening the body of Christ to be peacemakers by equipping churches, seminaries and missions in this area.

Their prayer and dream is that Isaiah 60:17-18 would be true of our nations and communities: 'I will make peace your governor and well-being your ruler. No longer will violence be heard in your land, nor ruin or destruction within your borders, but you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.'
